

Caterham ‘Super Six’ Gear Up to Raise Money for the Rainbow Trust

Caterham: 17th September, 2007 – A team of six from the Caterham-based IT recruitment company Highams Group gets geared up this week at its neighbour Caterham Cars ahead of a charity Karting Race it has entered in aid of the Rainbow Trust’s Children’s Charity. The three-hour Endurance Race will take place at Buckmore Park in Kent on September 23rd to raise money to help families who have a child with a life threatening or terminal illness.

Caterham Cars opened its doors to the Highams team to help get them primed for the 1200m Buckmore Park Karting Track which they will be racing to raise funds. Dave Pye, CEO of Highams, who is leading the Caterham Super Six team, comments: “We can’t wait to get on the circuit and raise money to help support the valuable work that the Rainbow Trust carries out. Caterham Cars has done a great job getting us geared up before the event and we’re raring to go.”

James Drake, marketing coordinator at Caterham Cars, adds: “We’re backing the Highams team all the way. Who knows if one of them could be the next Hamilton, Alonso or Schumacher? We’ve enjoyed getting the team ready and hope to see them on the podium at the end of the day.”

The Caterham Super Six team members are Russell Turpin, Dave Pye, Eion McDonagh, Gary Evans, Sam Nicholson, Amy Wise.

About Highams Group

Founded in 1983 and listed on the Alternative Investment Market (AIM) in 1996, Highams provides IT staff to the leading players in the financial, banking and insurance industries. A new office in the heart of the City of London at 30 St Mary’s Axe (the Gherkin) means Highams is ideally placed to service the UK’s biggest financial services district. But its ambitions do not stop there. Chief Executive, Dave Pye, is taking Highams into Europe to both source and place highly talented IT professionals.

Highams offers search and selection and campaign management. In addition, it provides executive search and outplacement support. Many leading financial organisations have selected Highams as their “partner of choice” for their IT recruitment needs because they realise that only a focused specialist can deliver the talent and skills they need to drive their business forward. Highams prides itself on its experienced consultants who are highly knowledgeable in recruitment best practice and their niche markets.
